

MONTHLY TRANSPARENCY WATCH

VOL. 01 2024

A publication of the Center for Fiscal Transparency and Public Integrity

One-Day Capacity Workshop for Media & Civil Society

Given their roles in strengthening the anti-corruption environment, this workshop was organized by the Center to build capacity of media and civil society actors to serve as effective advocates of transparency and accountability.

It was an opportunity to deepen participants understanding of the monitoring mechanism for Nigeria's implementation of the United Nations Conventions Against Corruption (UNCAC), the Transparency and Integrity Index (TII), and the modus operandi of the public service for effective reporting and advocacy.

Center Presents Monitoring Tool to Track Nigeria's Implementation of UNCAC

The presentation of the civil society monitoring template for Nigeria's implementation of the United Nations Convention Against Corruption (UNCAC) by the Center for Fiscal Transparency and Integrity Watch (CeFTIW) marks a significant step in ensuring transparency, participation, and independent oversight of Nigeria's fight against corruption.

Stakeholders at the presentation were drawn from government, CSOs, media, and international partners. Speaking at the event, the Chairman of the Independent Corrupt Practices Commission (ICPC), Dr. Musa Adamu Aliyu, SAN welcomed the Center's monitoring framework, pledging to work with the Center to enhance Nigeria's implementation of the Convention.

◆-----◆ New Partnership ◆-----◆

In February, the Center received in courtesy call members of the anti-corruption community development services (CDS) of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC).

The Group led by Habiba Aminu Goni (the CDS Officer) presented an an opportunity to discuss ways to reach communities with the message of transparency, accountability and our collective fight against corruption

Together, we can!

ADVOCACY VISIT TO KINGS COMPREHENSIVE COLLEGE, DEI-DEI

Following our recent partnership agreement, the Center, alongside the Anti-corruption CDS group of the National Youth Service Corps - NYSC visited Kings Comprehensive College, located at Dei-Dei, a suburb of the FCT, to raise awareness and sensitize students on the impact of corruption.

Inclusion is important in our quest to combat corruption, and we believe that by instilling and promoting values of integrity, honesty and hardwork among young people, we will make better progress.

The students actively participated in the dialogue, sharing their perspectives and insights on how they can contribute to fostering a culture of integrity. It was heartwarming to witness their enthusiasm and determination to make positive impact and change the ugly narrative about our country.

It's also refreshing to see that young Nigerians (members of the NYSC) are the ones leading this advocacy in collaboration with the Center.

Stakeholders Commit to Implementation of the FOI Act

At a one-day sensitization workshop organized by the Bureau of Public Service Reforms (BPSR), stakeholders have committed to effective implementation of the Freedom of Information Act (2011) to enhance transparency in governance.

The workshop was an opportunity for stakeholders to evaluate the importance of this piece of legislation in the fight against corruption through the instrumentality of transparency and accountability, which are the essence of the Act.
